New Beautiful...

DOUBLE FLOWERING GLADIOLUS

"Exotic Hybrids" in Gorgeous Colors

The Double Flowering Exotic Hybrids are not just another Gladiolus but a distinct new race or type, with a different color and form of floret. A complete new race with an entirely new concept for use in the home and for floral work.

Our Gladiolus of today have the long stiff spike, and if used on the show table, in a basket or tall vases are truly masterpieces. Yet it becomes a problem to make suitable arrangements for our present needs in the smaller home.

You will marvel at the possibilities of the exquisite arrangements you can easily make with these Exotic Doubles.

Most "Exotic Hybrids" have the double florets, with as many as thirty petals making a fullness ideal for floral work no other Glad can equal.

ARTHUR C. KOERNER

Patent Applied For.

A beautiful medium red scarlet color. As many as 18 petals to one individual floret. Florets 3 inches in size, 12 open on a 18 in. spike. One of the real beauties in the Double Flowering Type.
